Please complete the information asked above (pages 1 and 2), and return to the parish by September 2, 2016.
The attached syllabus is for you to keep and use for reading/study assignments throughout the classes.

Regarding the two (2) texts that are being used this year (see attached syllabus):

1. The first (1st) text is by "Bishop Barron" and is a small paperback that can be obtained in either paperback or ebook format by way of Amazon.com. The electronic copy is much less expensive than the printed paperback version.
 - A. If you wish to have the book electronically, please purchase for yourself.
 - B. If you wish to have a printed version, in paperback, the parish will order for you. If you are able to make a donation of $5.00 to offset some of the cost, that would be appreciated.

2. The second (2nd) text is by "Fr. Socias" and is in a printed version only, in either hardback or paperback form. It is not available by way of Amazon.com, but only obtainable from Midwest Theological Forum.
 - A. The parish will order a paperback version of this text for each person attending.
 - B. If you are able to make a donation of $5.00 to offset some of the cost, that would be appreciated.
