Fr. Fred's Corner

I would like to thank all of you for the amazing welcome I have received since arriving in St. Catherine's Parish. I feel very privileged to serve the people of St. Catherine's Parish, going on mission with y'all, building up leaders, and entering the tapestry of missionary discipleship with y'all.

In case you were not able to hear last week, I am Fr. Fred Boni. I do not have a huge preference on what I am called; maybe a slight preference of Fr. Fred, but Fr. Boni is fine as well. I am from Baldwin County and grew up on our family farm. I attended Christ the King Parish, went to school there, then to McGill-Toolen, and then attended Springhill College, where I graduated in 2002. I entered seminary in 2004, spent two years at St. Charles Borromeo in Philadelphia and then four years in Rome. I was ordained a priest in 2010, spent two years at St. Dominic's Parish as an assistant, then was pastor of St. John's Parish in Ozark for the last eight years. I am an Alabama fan, I run, but have not in the last week due to craziness in moving, I like to read, I like all types of music. When I'm with friends, bourbon or beer is usually what I drink, but I have been known to venture. I like all types of food.

It was great gathering at the altar with y'all at Mass last weekend; we have a beautiful church and a great community to match. A parish family composed of English speakers and Spanish speakers. I look forward to the excitement of missioning with y'all!

My main points of interest as pastor is building a community together that encounters Christ again and again, building a community together through this encounter with Christ that supports each other and equips each other for the main task entrusted to us by God: evangelization. I look forward to building with y'all through the power of the Holy Spirit a community that becomes confident in mission, not afraid to reach out to those who are outside the four walls of our beautiful church, especially those furthest. God has that missionary patience with each of us, so we cannot help but mirror the same missionary patience to those around us. I look forward to this adventure as pastor with y'all!
